Mrs. Gertrude Tibbs desires to announce to her friends that she will return to her home, 1513 East 23d street, next Monday, the 23d, after her long illness during which time she has been with Mrs. Bailey on Lydia avenue.

Mrs. Hill, wife of Dr. R. Leon Hill of Booneville, Mo., passed through the city last Saturday en route home from the State Teachers' Association at St. Joseph, Mo. She says Dr. Hill, who has been quite ill from blood poisoning, is recuperating nicely.

The management of the Old Folks and Orphans' Home, 2446 Michigan avenue, as also the inmates of the institution desire to express through the columns of the Kansas City Sun their sincere thanks for all favors bestowed in the past and to request that the Home be remembered by its patrons and friends. The Home is in great need of coal and fuel and would highly appreciate donations of coal, meats, vegetables, canned goods or cash. All persons are cordially invited to visit the Home and see for themselves its condition and wants.

Mrs. C. E. Cummings, President, J. Dallas Bowser, Secretary, Board of Trustees.

Mr. Frank G. Sallee died at the general hospital Saturday night at 11:30 o'clock after an illness of only nine days. Until a few days prior to this illness he had been in perfect health. His funeral services were conducted by the young men of the Y. M. C. A. from the Watkins undertaking establishment, Sunday at 4:30 p. m. They were very impressive. His employers, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gary, were present and showed they were deeply affected. Mr. Sallee was one of the most active and loyal members of the association. He was anxious to see the opening of the association building. In the midst of their rejoicing at the opening of the building the men are made sad by the loss of their comrade in the Christian work.

The wise business man advertises his merit. Business is good with him. He uses printer's ink. The Kansas City Sun will tell your story. You need the printer, too. Try Franklin. He gives service. 1008 East Eighteenth street. Transfer at Troost. Bell phone, Grand 2988.

FIRST ANNUAL MUSICAL AND ORATORICAL CONTEST BETWEEN

The following educational institutions of this section: Western University, Kansas City, Mo.; George R. Smith college, Sedalia, Mo.; Topeka Educational and Industrial School, and our own Lincoln High, on Wednesday, December 23. The affair will be given under the auspices of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and will no doubt prove the prime event of the holiday season. A committee is negotiating for the best meeting place in Kansas City for colored, which will be announced in next week's issue.

WOOLLY JACOBS, President. MYRTLE F. TODD, Secretary. F. J. WEAVER, Treasurer.

BLACKS HAVE BETTER PLACE THAN WHITES.

The Spotless Kitchen Run by Colored Women.

Right in the near heart of the business district, one block south of the Baltimore Hotel, one block west of Main street on Thirteenth, is located a first class restaurant and lunch room for colored people.

Every day at noon you can see a throng of colored persons in this place; some going, and some coming to get a well cooked dinner served from a hot steam table in a clean and wholesome manner. Everything appointed in modern style and figured for quick and efficient service. The long, clean and inviting counter in front of the steam table with "Tables for Ladies" in extreme opposite with all furniture harmonizing, "the Spotless Kitchen" takes rank with the best up-to-date eating places.

This place is appreciated and patronized by porters, laborers, shoppers and even professional people find it convenient at times to drop in and get a good meal at popular prices from 20 cents up. They also find the breakfast and supper service of splendid quality. Appetizing cereals, the finest steaks, with the best coffee served with all orders. Without question this is the best that has been produced by Negroes in quick lunch, and easily shades most of the white places of like nature. We understand that the place keeps open all night. This means that it never closes. Always open for business. Mrs. E. Dora Thomas runs the place. The style and appointment and the success of the enterprise tells plainly enough that she knows the business. Free Bell phone, Grand 2863. At 23 West Thirteenth street.

Note—Social Thanksgiving day dinner.

LOUISIANA, MO.

Sunday, Nov. 15, 1914, Mr. Henry Ross passed to his reward at the ripe old age of 71 years. He was returning home from attending a meeting of Smith lodge A. F. and A. M., Payneville, Mo., presided over by Deputy Grand Master Boone, of which he was an honored member for 35 years. Brother Ross was loved by all who knew him for his steadfastness both in church and lodge. Our heart goes out in sympathy to the bereaved wife, three daughters and many relatives in this their hour of distress.

LEXINGTON, MO

Misses Ball and Henderson returned from St. Joseph Sunday evening where they had been attending the State Teachers' Association. The following persons are still on the sick list: Messrs. Robert Johnson, Irvin Hawkins and Mrs. Mayne Moses. The revival closed at St. John M. E. church on North Twelfth street Sunday night with quite a number of converts. The following persons are having new homes erected: Mesdames Guy Workuff, Tony Bates, Louis Brown. Mrs. Bates' home is to be a bungalow, strictly modern. Miss Gladys Hicklin, who is attending school at Lincoln Institute, was home a few days last week, returning to Jefferson City Sunday morning.

Among the Churches

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Brother Eli Harris is somewhat improved. Brother Oliver is convalescing. The B. Y. P. U. gave Brother Oliver a surprise Wednesday evening of last week. Those present were: Mrs. David Jones, Mrs. R. L. Blackwell, Mrs. Julia Caldwell, Mrs. Dicy Jackson, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Messrs. S. A. Wilson, Thos. Pollard, H. Wood and others. A pleasant evening is reported.

MRS. SAMANTHA WALKER, President of the Queen of Sheba Club of the Vine Street Baptist Church, who won the first prize in the recent contest with $316.60 to her credit and who was presented with a beautiful floral offering by the members of her club and an elegant 26-piece silver set by the church for her splendid work. Mrs. Walker is one of Kansas City's foremost women and her friends are gratified with her glorious victory.

Miss Wordie Blackwell will leave for St. Louis soon where she will teach in the Lincoln High school. We hope her success. Miss Effie Frichard favored the B. Y. P. U. with a vocal solo which was indeed grand. She will sing Nov. 29. Don't fail to hear this great singer at 5:30 Sunday evening. Dr. Lambright presented the presents to the presidents of the two clubs. Mrs. Samantha Walker of the Queen of Sheba, first prize, and Mrs. James Graham, president of the Canite Club, second. The clubs did a good work for which we are thankful.

The St. Peter's A. M. E. Zion church, 1823 Grove street—a place where you can worship God in the old fashioned way. Strangers and friends are always welcome. We are not here for money but for the moral and religious uplift of our people. We sell coal to the poor. Two baskets for 20 cents, and a nice bunch of kindling thrown in. Rev. Lesha Beard, one of our evangelists, is now the pastor of this humble little church. Much good is being done. On Thanksgiving day you can get a nice dinner for 15 cents. District conference will convene at this church December 4. Come and see us.

CENTENNIAL M. E. CHURCH.

Next week is winning souls week with the Epworth League at Centennial M. E. church, and beginning next Monday evening the League will be divided into bands and any house where song and prayer will be welcome one of the bands will pay a visit, holding a short service with the inmates. Thanksgiving morning a joint service will be held at the church, and Sunday morning at 5:30 o'clock prayer service will be conducted at the church. Beginning Sunday evening Dr. Davis, the pastor, will begin a three or four weeks' revival service. The mercy and help department of the Epworth League are raising money to buy winter underwear for all of the inmates of the Old Folks and Orphans' Home. Mrs. Mamie McLean is at the head of this department and your contribution will be properly accounted for. The four weeks' rally at Centennial netted $523.

Judge A. C. Mays of Cary, Ind., a Methodist minister for more than forty years, occupied the pulpit at Centennial last Sunday night and lectured the Monday night following.

HIGHLAND AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The revival service which is being conducted at the Highland Avenue Baptist church is meeting with great success. Rev. L. H. Mills, the pastor, has had with him during the past ten days Rev. Wm. Bryant, D.D., of Macon, Ga., who rendered valuable service to the delight of all who attended the meeting. Rev. Bryant delivered his farewell sermon Sunday night, the 15th, and left Monday in the afternoon for Georgia. In the meantime Rev. R. B. Williams, D.D., of Macon, Ga., a noted revivalist and a preacher of no mean ability, has been with us. Rev. Williams has conducted successful revivals in Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Pennsylvania and other great states and cities. Rev. Williams preached his introductory sermon last Tuesday night to an appreciative audience. We had a Pentecostal meeting and one young man was happily converted. Many others showed signs of deep repentance. The doctor will preach each night while the meeting continues, which will close on the night of the 27th. The public is urged to attend these services and hear this great preacher. You are further reminded that on Thursday, the 26th, the church will observe Thanksgiving day and dinner will be served at the church to the public at a meager price of 25 cents per meal. Let no one eat dinner other than at the Highland Avenue Baptist church; get your dinner and thus you help the church in its financial struggle.

Poro hair dressing, hair waving and facial massaging. Scalp treatment a specialty. Mrs. E. Norles, 1737 Paseo, upstairs.
